

I am strongly opposed to opening up my phone line to "established business relationship" companies. I feel it would compromise my privacy.